

— THE — LITTLE BOOK — OF —
BIRD
ING

TEXT AND PHOTOGRAPHS BY GEORGE H. HARRISON

MALE RED-WINGED BLACKBIRD (LEFT); EASTERN SCREECH OWL (RIGHT)

Birds . . . they are with us from dawn til dusk,
from the red-winged blackbird's sunrise con-gor-ree . . .
to the screech owl's whinny under a full moon.

MALE AMERICAN ROBIN

Birds fascinate us,
whether they be everyday birds with ordinary feathers . . .

PAINTED BUNTINGS

. . . or once-in-a-lifetime birds
with quite extraordinary feathers.

FLEDGLING EASTERN SCREECH OWL

They entertain us,
whether they are winsome . . .

ANDEAN CONDOR

. . . or homely, young or old,
they are all on stage in nature's grand theater.

ROSEATE SPOONBILL (LEFT); GREAT EGRET (RIGHT)

We marvel at their grace and elegance . . .
their flight.

MASLOWSKI PHOTO

WILLOW CREEK PRESS
Minocqua, Wisconsin

5 1495

9 781572 231429

7 09786 00109 5